

Holidays 2018

Once again time has marched on and the calendar has turned to another holiday season. Thanksgiving is literally “around the corner” and Christmas parties, events and festivities will begin. Many of us are likely looking at our calendars and watching the days fill up with one gathering after another. If we are not careful we can quickly become overwhelmed with the busyness of the next several weeks, or we can see each event, meal, and gathering for what they are ... opportunities to intentionally intersect with the lives of others in our community.

As Christians we should be quick to express our gratitude for all that God has done for both to brothers and sisters in Christ but also to those we meet as we go through our everyday lives. As our friends and neighbors turn their attention to everything Christmas we will once again have an abundance of opportunities to share with them the real message of God’s love and the gift of Jesus Christ.

Several events have been placed on the church calendar with the purpose of helping us accomplish the mission God has given to us ... see below 😊. It is my prayer that we will each approach this holiday season with the purpose of sharing the gospel with those who need to “come and see”. (John 1:46)
